This Privacy Policy applies to the processing of the User's data by Cooltra and its Local Subsidiaries.

For each city in which Cooltra operates, the Service will be provided locally by a Cooltra Local Subsidiary, to which it will communicate the User's data necessary for such provision and the corresponding invoicing. The Additional Privacy Terms and Conditions indicated in section G below shall apply to each Local Subsidiary.

Furthermore, in addition to this Privacy Policy, you may also consult the Terms and Conditions of Use available on the corresponding section of the website and app.

Cooltra guarantees the protection of all the personal data provided by Users to Cooltra, to its Local Subsidiaries from the activation and during the use of the Service and pursuant to the provisions established in Applicable Data Protection Laws and, in particular, in REGULATION (EU) 2016/679 OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL of 27 April 2016:

- A. Files. All personal data provided by the User and/or collected by Cooltra through the activation, registration and use of the Service shall be included in one or more files created and maintained under the responsibility of Cooltra,
- B. Data collected. Cooltra collects the following personal data:
 1. REGISTRATION: during the registration as a user, Cooltra collects the following data: name, surname, e-mail, residence address, billing address, telephone, ID, ID or passport, driving license, debit/credit card and selfie photo for identity verification.
 2. USE OF THE SERVICE: during the use of the service by the user, Cooltra collects the following data: rental start date, time and place, rental end date, time and place and actions performed with the vehicle sensors (seat, bicycle rest, on/off/paused).
 3. NOTIFICATIONS/CLAIMS: any other specific data notified by the User during the course of the correspondence with Cooltra for the purpose of contacting and/or resolving any claims with Cooltra.

Consent. By registering to use the service, the User authorises and consents to the processing of their personal data, in the terms indicated above, by marking the acceptance box located at the end of the User's Service registration. The User certifies that they are at least 18 years of age and therefore has the legal capacity required to give unequivocal consent in terms of the processing of their personal data and all in accordance with the provisions established in this Privacy Policy.

- C. Purposes and legal legitimacy to process your information. Your personal data are collected for the following purposes:

with the credit card being rejected if the card expires or the details change. Cooltra will receive the updated credit card details in accordance with the prior authorization you have given to the issuing bank.

Cooltra shall not use the personal data made available by the User/Customer to provide services other than those mentioned or, if applicable, for its own use or other than the use authorised by the owner of said data. Users may revoke their consent at any given time by sending a written notice with the subject "Withdrawal" to rgpd@cooltra.com/gdpr@felyx.com, or by unsubscribing via the app. In regards to commercial email communications, you may also unsubscribe at the bottom of each commercial email. To unsubscribe from push notifications, you will need to do so through your mobile application settings. By cancelling them, all push notifications will be stopped including marketing, service notifications from the Cooltra app, as well as personalised offers and promotions from Cooltra to your device.

Cooltra shall not employ SPAM tactics, therefore, they shall not send commercial emails that have not been previously requested or authorised by the User. Accordingly, in all correspondence received from Cooltra, the user shall be able to expressly choose not to receive our correspondence.

D. Cancellation of User Account. The user may, at any given time, delete their account and the data associated with the same. In these cases, Cooltra undertakes not to use said information other than for the retention obligations imposed by Data Protection Laws. The user may also cancel their payment services at any given time, without cancelling their user account. The cancellation of the payment services and the account cancellation, as well as the cancellation of the Newsletter, or push notifications, are independent cancellation processes, with each having a specific procedure enabled for said purpose.

E. Data retention. Cooltra shall retain the user's data for use exclusively for the duration of the contractual relationship. The duration of the relationship is indefinite. As established in section D, once the user cancels the user account, Cooltra agrees not to use said information other than for retention obligations imposed by Data Protection Laws. Therefore, Cooltra reserves your personal data, adopting technical and organisational measures, to prevent their processing, including their visualisation, except for the purpose of making the data available to judges and courts, the Public Prosecutor's Office or the competent Public Administrations, in particular the data protection authorities, for the enforcement of possible liabilities arising from the processing and only for the period of limitation of the same (depending on the type of liability and the country of origin of the user). After this period Cooltra will destroy the data. The blocked data may not be processed for any purpose other than that indicated in the previous section.

– Data retention periods

You are hereby informed that our data retention policies conform to the periods established by legal responsibilities in terms of prescription based on the country of origin, and in all cases, data shall be definitively destroyed once the legally required period has prescribed. For more information on how long we keep your personal data, please send us an email to rgpd@cooltra.com, gdpr@felyx.com .

F. Confidentiality. Cooltra agrees to keep strictly private and confidential and not to disclose all private and personal information we may access. The technical and organisational measures established in the data protection regulation have been implemented by Cooltra, based on the type of data being processes at any given time. In the collection and processing of personal data, the appropriate security measures have been implemented, in order to avoid the loss, unauthorised access or handling of the same, pursuant to the provisions established in the abovementioned regulation. In accordance with the provisions established in REGULATION (EU) 2016/679 OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL of 27 April 2016 and all other applicable Data Protection regulations, Cooltra as the party responsible for the files, hereby informs users that the personal data provided by users during their relationship with our company, including their email address and any personal data we may access during the established relationship, shall be processed in one or more of the files in accordance with the provisions established in existing laws.

G. Assignments: Cooltra shall assign User data indicated in section (B) to:

- One or more of Cooltra's Local Subsidiaries (entities indicated Annex 1 of the Service General Terms and Conditions) for the purposes indicated in section (C) and, in particular for the reservation, rental, management and local provision of the Cooltra vehicle rental Service and for the issuance of invoices and the notification of offers and other local promotions.
- Insurance companies involved in a claim in which a Cooltra vehicle is involved.
- Specialised debt collection companies.
- Companies specialising in commercial information management.
- Companies involved in vehicle rental and/or ancillary services with which Cooltra has agreements.
- Companies contractually associated with Cooltra responsible for managing claims.
- Third parties that we need to manage our business (marketing services, accountants, administrative and fiscal assistants who are contractually associated with us via a data processing contract).
- Third party companies subcontracted by us or service providers we use to provide our services. For example, payment gateway providers.

The data may be transferred to the competent public administrations. Including, but not limited to, always in accordance with the applicable regulations in the different countries in which Cooltra offers its services, Cooltra is legally obliged to assign your data in the event of committing a traffic or parking offence:

In Spain, Article 11 of Royal Legislative Decree 6/2015, of 30 October, which approves the consolidated text of the Law on Traffic, Circulation of Motor Vehicles and Road Safety.

In France Article L121-6 of the Code de la route.

In Italy, Article 126 bis of the Codice Della strada.

In Portugal Article 171 of the Codigo da Estrada

Likewise, data may be assigned in the event of the purchase of all or a substantial part of Cooltra's assets, or the restructuring of the Cooltra corporate group. Said data assignment would be performed in strict compliance with the provisions established in the applicable Data Protection regulation.

Collaborating companies: Cooltra may share data with third party companies as joint controllers. All these companies are contractually bound to us. We can guarantee that they comply with all necessary security measures to safeguard your personal information, and that they will use your personal data only and exclusively for the specified purposes, in accordance with our instructions. At present, the current collaborating companies are: Cabify, Free Now, Doco, Urbi and Telepass.

With the exception of the foregoing, there should be no other data assignments, except those established by other laws or competent public administrations.

Where is your personal information hosted?

Information you provide through this website and the application will be hosted on the Amazon Web Services servers: <https://aws.amazon.com/es/>.

H. Data Subject's Rights. As user-data subject, you may send a request to exercise the following rights before "COOLTRA" by writing to the postal address indicated at the beginning or by sending an email to rgpd@cooltra.com , gdpr@felyx.com , indicating the following in the Subject line: "GDPR, Rights affected", and attaching your data and the rights you wish to assert.

Rights:

- Right of access: allows data subjects to know and obtain information about the categories of their personal data processed.
- Right to rectification or deletion: allows errors to be rectified and inaccurate or incomplete data to be modified or completed.
- Right to erasure: allows inadequate or excessive data to be eliminated.
- Right to object: right of the data subject to object to the processing of their personal data and for the processing to cease.
- Right restriction of processing: entails marking the retained personal data, with the aim of restricting future processing.
- Right to data portability: enables data subjects to obtain their personal data being processed, in order to transmit their data to another data controller, without impediment.
- Right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing (including profiling): right not to be subject to a fully automatic decision that has legal effects or significantly affects the person in question.

As user, you have the right to withdraw the consent given at any given time. The withdrawal of consent shall not affect the lawfulness of the processing performed prior to the withdrawal of consent.

If you think your data protection rights have been breached, you are entitled to lodge a complaint with the corresponding supervisory authority in your country of origin.

I. Social Networks. We inform you that Cooltra may have a presence on social networks. The processing of data of the followers on the social networks (and/or make any link or action of connection through the social networks) of the official pages of Cooltra will be governed by this section, as well as by those terms and conditions of use, privacy policies and access regulations that belong to the social network applicable in each case and previously accepted by the user.

Cooltra shall process your data for the purposes of properly managing your presence on the social network, informing you of activities, products or services of Cooltra, as well as for any other purpose that the regulations of the social networks allow.

It is prohibited to publish content:

- That is suspected of being unlawful under national, community or international law or of engaging in activities that are suspected of being unlawful or of contravening the principles of good faith.
- That violates the fundamental rights of persons, lack of courtesy in the network, disturbs or may generate negative opinions in our users or third parties and in general any content that Cooltra considers inappropriate.
- And in general, that contravenes the principles of legality, honesty, responsibility, protection of human dignity, protection of minors, protection of public order, protection of privacy, consumer protection and intellectual and industrial property rights.

Cooltra also reserves the right to remove, without prior notice, from the website or the corporate social network content that is considered inappropriate.

The communications sent through social networks shall be incorporated into a file owned by Cooltra, to be able to send you information of interest you.

At any time you may exercise your rights of access, rectification, opposition, limitation and, where appropriate, portability or cancellation, by writing and indicating your personal data to the address rgpd@cooltra.com, gdpr@felyx.com.

In any case, if you send personal information through the social network, Cooltra shall be exempt from liability in relation to the security measures applicable to this platform, and the user, if they want to know them, should consult the corresponding particular terms and conditions of the network in question.

J. Means of communication enabled. The sole means of communication enabled between Cooltra and the User are: fixed-line telephone, company mobile phones, corporate mail, registered address and social media.

If you send personal information through a means of communication other than those indicated in this section, the COMPANY shall be exempt from liability in relation to the security measures offered by the means of communication in question.

K. Communications and Notifications. Any communication sent shall be incorporated into Cooltra's information systems. By accepting these terms, conditions and policies and, in particular, when the User sends their personal data to Cooltra, the User expressly consents to Cooltra performing the following activities and/or actions, unless indicated otherwise by the User when entering into a contact for a Cooltra product and/or service or as a result of a subsequent revocation of the consent initially given.

- The sending of commercial and/or promotional communications informing the users of the activities, services, promotions, advertising, news, offers and other information about the services and products related to the activity and provision of services of Cooltra.
- In case the User has expressly consented to the sending of commercial communications by electronic means by subscribing to them, the sending of such communications informing the Users of the activities, services, promotions, advertising, news, offers and other information about services and products of Cooltra or collaborating companies equal or similar to those that were initially contracted or of interest to the User.
- The retention of data during the periods established in applicable laws.

L. Personnel selection. In compliance with the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of 27 April 2016 (GDPR), we inform you that the personal data provided shall be processed by Cooltra, with registered office at Calle Reina Cristina 2, 2-2, 08003 Barcelona (Data Controller).

The data provided shall be processed for the sole purpose of involving the interested party in the personnel selection processes currently open or for future processes in which the candidate may fit, and may not be used for other purposes. In the event of any changes to your data, please notify us in writing as soon as possible, so that we can keep your data up to date. The data shall not be disclosed to third parties, except where required by law.

The data shall be kept for a maximum period of two years, after which time they shall be deleted, guaranteeing total respect for confidentiality both in the processing and in their subsequent destruction.

We also inform you that you have the right to request access, rectification, portability and deletion of your data and the limitation and opposition or by sending an email to rgpd@cooltra.com, gdpr@felyx.com, indicating the type of right you wish to exercise and accompanying your request with a copy of your ID card or similar document in law. If you consider that the processing of personal data does not comply with the applicable regulations, you also have the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority www.agpd.es.

M. Video surveillance. In some premises, images are captured for the sole purposes indicated in the purposes section of this privacy policy and/or at the request of public authorities.

We have an information circular available upon request and a video-surveillance zone logo located in a sufficiently visible place in front of the camera, informing that the place is a video-monitored establishment.

The images captured by the cameras shall be limited to the public establishment concerned. No images shall be taken from the public highway except for a minimum area of the entrances to the establishment.

The recording system shall be located in a guarded or restricted access location. The images obtained shall be accessible only to the authorised person and shall be kept for a maximum period of one month from their capture.

N. International transfer of personal information. In order to be able to provide service, we may sometimes need to transfer your data outside the European Economic Area (EEA). For example:

- In the event that we need to communicate with our delegations outside the EEA;
- To communicate with you or our suppliers when you are outside the EU;
- When there is an international dimension to the products/services we provide you with.

International data transfers are subject to special rules governed by the principles of data protection laws. This means that we may only transfer your data to countries or international organisations outside the EU when:

- The receiving country is considered safe by the competent authority as regards the level of protection it applies to personal data.
- All appropriate measures have been taken to ensure the safeguarding of security and the proper exercise of your legal rights, as well as the possibility to lodge complaints.
- There is an applicable exception under data protection law.

O. Language. The language applicable to this Privacy Policy is Spanish. Therefore, if there are any contradictions in any of the versions in other languages, the Spanish version shall prevail.

P. Changes to this Privacy Policy. Cooltra reserves the right to modify this policy in order to adapt it to legal or legislative updates.
